Gold imports, $3,187,575; gold exports, $1,-109,845; silver imports, $3,125,859; silver exorts, $5,057,653. The treasury bureau of statistics yesterday broke the record for prominess in pre-sentation of the month's figures of our foreign commerce. The tables giving the details of the March imports and exports were distributed to the press and public yesterday afternoon, being fully ten days ahead of the average date during the past few years, and the earliest date on record for these elaborate tables. When it is re-membered that each of the collectors of customs, located on the Atlantic, Pacific and gulf coasts, and at various interior points, must first compile and forward the results of the month's imports and ex-ports, and that the work of the bureau can only begin when these reports are received through the mails, its success in arrang-ing, condensing and compiling the records of these 125 ports so as to present so early in the month the details of the commerce of the month and year by countries, articles, quantities and values, will be appreciated, as will also that of the government printing office, which printed, bound and delivered these elaborate tables in a little over twenty-four hours after their receipt from the bureau of statistics.

MINING IN MEXICO. The Industry Affording Most Evi-dences of Rapid Progress.

The secretary of the embassy at Mexico, Mr. McCreery, sends to the State Department, under date of April 3, a copy of the message of President Diaz on the opening of congress, from which the following paragraphs in regard to mining matters are "The mining industry is that which affords most evidences of rapid progress, as in the period covered by this report 1,040 title deeds, covering 11,408 pertenencias of one hectare (2.471 acres) each, have been issued. The total number of title deeds issued, subject to the new legislation of June, 1892, is 9,353, covering 77,774 pertenencias of one hectare each.

"The exportation of ore has also increased to a noteworthy degree. Taking the figures recently published by the department of finance for the seven months, July to January of the present fiscal year, it appears that the value of the exportation of mineral products, metallic and non-metallic, was $54,311,000 in round figures, showing am-increase of $1,043,000 over the value of the same products exported in the corresponding period of the previous year.

"As an important event in the mining industry, I will state that the Adventurer tunnel at Batopilas, which is nearly 3 kilometers (1.86 miles) in length, which has been fifteen years under construction and has cost millions of dollars, has just struck the principal lodes of the camp.

Conduits of Telephone and Electric Companies on Assessor's Book. The District Commissioners today signed an order directing the board of assistant assessors to assess as real estate the conduits of the several telephone and electric lighting companies doing business in the District. This order, it was stated in The Star several days ago, would follow the Commissioners' approval of an opinion of their legal adviser, in which he held, as was stated in The Star at the time, that was stated in The Star at the time, that these conduits are assessable as real estate. There are approximately seventy-two miles of electric lighting and telephone conduits in the city, distributed as follows: The United States Electric Lighting Company, 43.40 miles; the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, 15.11 miles; the Potomac Electric Power Company, 10.44 miles, and the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company, 2.77 miles.
